The Price of the Equity Shares to be allotted to the Proposed Allottees of the Company shall not be less than the price determined in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations. Currently, SEBI ICDR Regulations provides that the pricing for the issue of securities on preferential basis by a listed Company is to be based on the following parameters:

(a) In case of “frequently traded shares (Regulation 164(1) of the SEBI ICDR Regulations:

If the equity shares of the Company have been listed on a recognised stock exchange for a period of 90 trading days or more as on the relevant date, the price of the equity shares to be allotted pursuant to the preferential issue shall be not less than higher of the following;

(i) The 90 trading days’ volume weighted average price of the related equity shares quoted on the recognised stock exchange preceding the relevant date; or

(i) The 10 trading days’ volume weighted average prices of the related equity shares quoted on a recognised stock exchange preceding the relevant date.

Provided that if the Articles of Association of the issuer provide for a method of determination which results in a floor price higher than that determined under these regulations, then the same shall be considered as the floor price for equity shares to be allotted pursuant to the preferential issue.

(a) In case of Change in Control or allotment of more than five per cent. (Regulation 166A (1) of the SEBI ICDR Regulations:

Any preferential issue, which may result in a change in control or allotment of more than five per cent of the post issue fully diluted share capital of the issuer, to an allottee or to allottees acting in concert, shall require a valuation report from an independent registered valuer and consider the same for determining the price.

Provided that the floor price, in such cases, shall be higher of the floor price determined under sub regulation (1), (2) or (4) of regulation 164, as the case may be, or the price determined under the valuation report from the independent registered valuer or the price determined in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association of the issuer, if applicable

Articles of Association of the Company do not provide for any particular method of determination which results in a floor price higher than that determined under SEBI ICDR Regulations.
